Asklepion & Shuffield Awards

Asklepion Award

The Asklepion Award will be given to an Arkansas Medical Society physician member*. Nominees should:

- Promote the art and science of medicine and the betterment of the public health.
- Embody the values of the medical profession through leadership, service, excellence, integrity, and ethical behavior.
- Enrich patients, colleagues, and the community through dedicated medical practice.

Shuffield Award

The Shuffield Award is given each year to recognize lay persons in Arkansas who have done outstanding community work in the health care field. The individual might be a newspaper reporter, television personality, government official, teacher, or individual promoting a community or other health related program. The person cannot be a physician or member of a physician's immediate family. The recognition should be for community work outside that person's regular employment (not for work done as part of their job).
